Public Comment:

-Drive by comment,

Two gentlemen from out of town stopped by to see if we knew where Bryan Sweet lived and from the different things that the gentleman remembered we think he lived in the two story house to the right across from the hall, they were very pleased that they were able to talk to us and I also looked to see if there was any information that the society had on that family but there wasn't any.

-Pam Mervau (maiden name Ray) and her parents brought some very cool family photos in a very old photo album, to show us.

Correspondence:

-Pam Mervau (Ray) brought in some old photos that she donated to the society.

Unfinished Business:

-The Williamsburg school reunion turned out very nice we had a good turn out and everybody had a good time.

Unfinished Business (continued):

- Everyone seemed to enjoy the display that the Historical Society had at the reunion.
- Gaylord Gee and family donated his father's (Eddie Gee) letterman jacket and 1949 yearbook,

The society is very excited about the new additions to our history.

- About Circle Hill Cemetery field trip, we decided to plan on going in the spring when there is more daylight.
