Unfinished Business:

-We were not able to conduct a meeting in September 2018.
-We discussed progress on finding the information on Battle Creek, and Birks suggested going to the library to look up Indian history to see if there was a battle listed in the area of the creek, or if there was a map.
-We went over how the school reunion went, we were very happy with how it turned out.

New Business:-

-Ideas for the next school reunion in 2020: There is just a very few changes that we will make for the next one and depending on the turn out we might have to make a lot more changes for the reunions that follow.
-Snider was asked to get a list of road names together by the township zoning administrator Denny, so Snider got the list done for him in the beginning of September. A couple weeks after he passed away with a heart attack, we give our deepest sympathy to his family.

-A longtime resident of our township Doris Stites passed away on September 22, 2018. Doris was gracious enough to do an oral interview with Snider to preserve the history of our area. The Historical Society gives our deepest sympathy to her family.

-Snider is trying to get another cabinet at the hall for more historical items.

-There are a few people that would like information, Snider is working hard to get to them.
