-Basil Gray (one of our members and the first one that we are going to interview, here are some facts that he remembers).

The Vinton Hotel did not have a restaurant, it was just a hotel.

There was a Barn behind the white house that is now across from the post office, they would show free movies on the side of the barn, mostly country westerns, and they used the little league field for the parking lot. The owner of the barn was J. King.

Howard Brown owned the store that is right next to the post office and Gray would go there and get a ice cream cone for a nickel this was in 1945 the same year the war ended.

-Gray made the motion to adjourn the meeting and Snider seconded the motion.

-The meeting was adjourned by Snider at 8:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Luann Snider
